ALMA MATER

On our city's Northern border, Reared against the skies,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
As the years roll by.

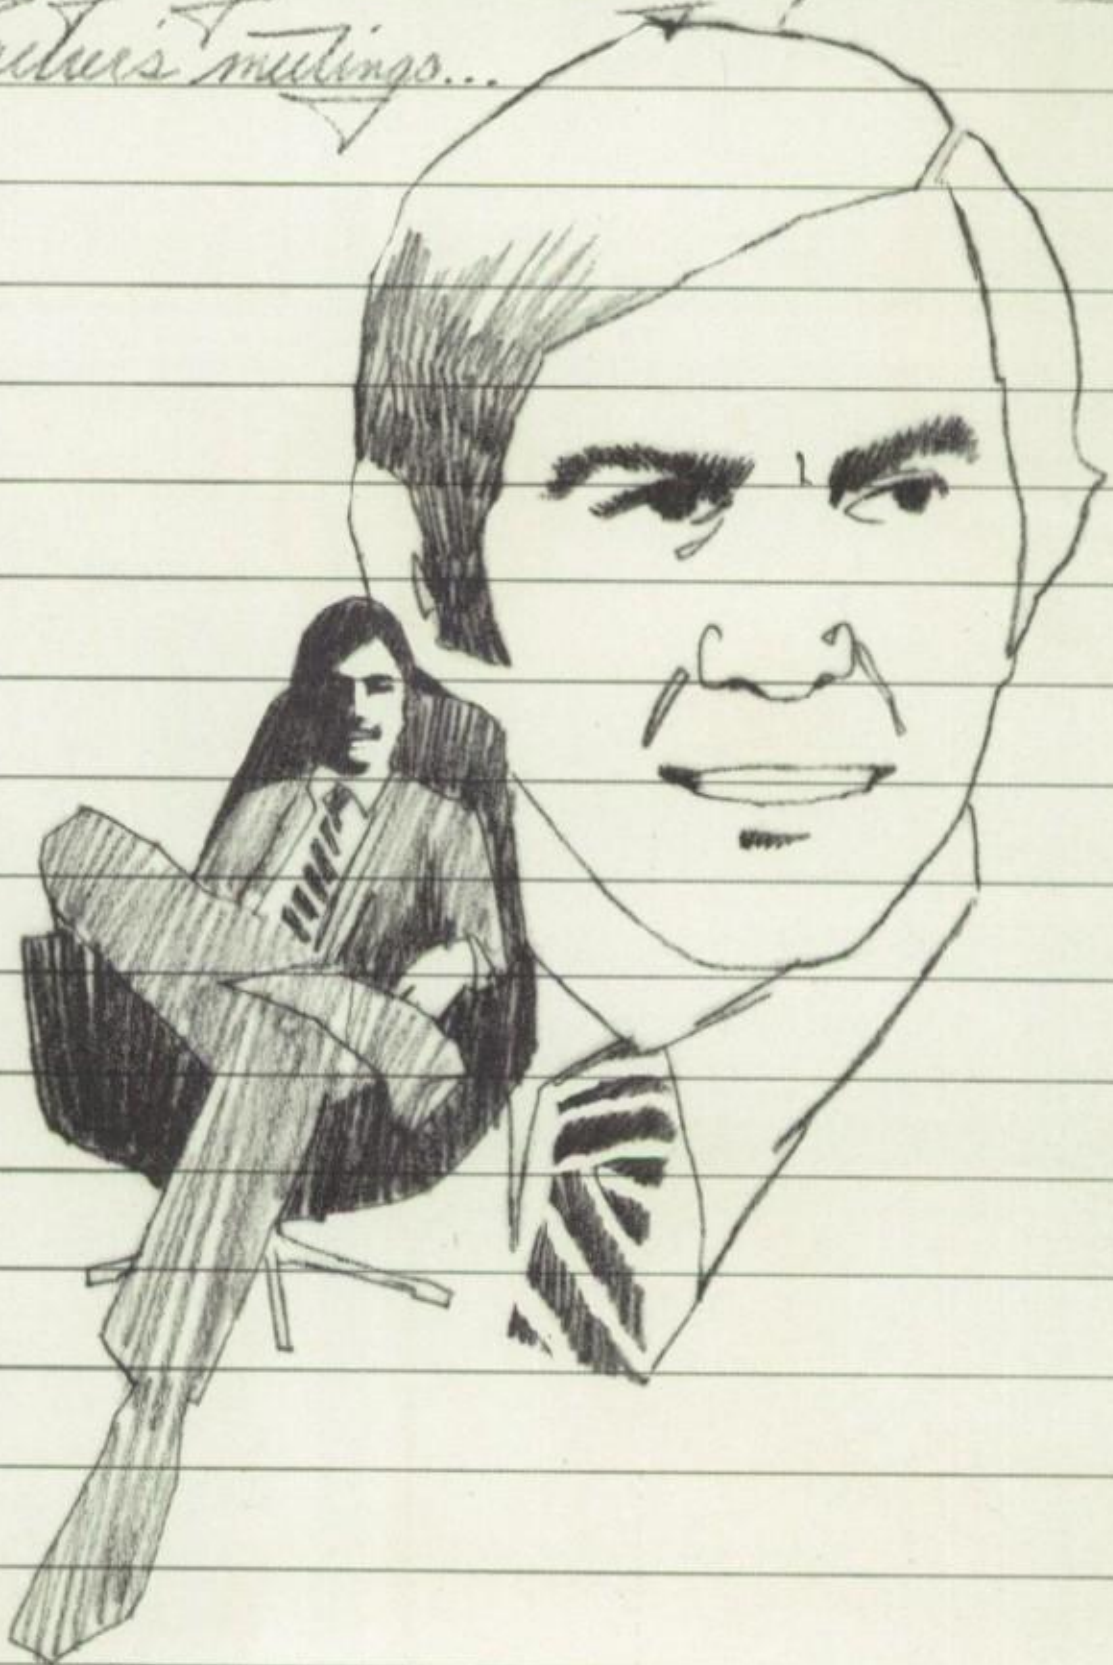

Forward ever, be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
C.H.S., All Hail.

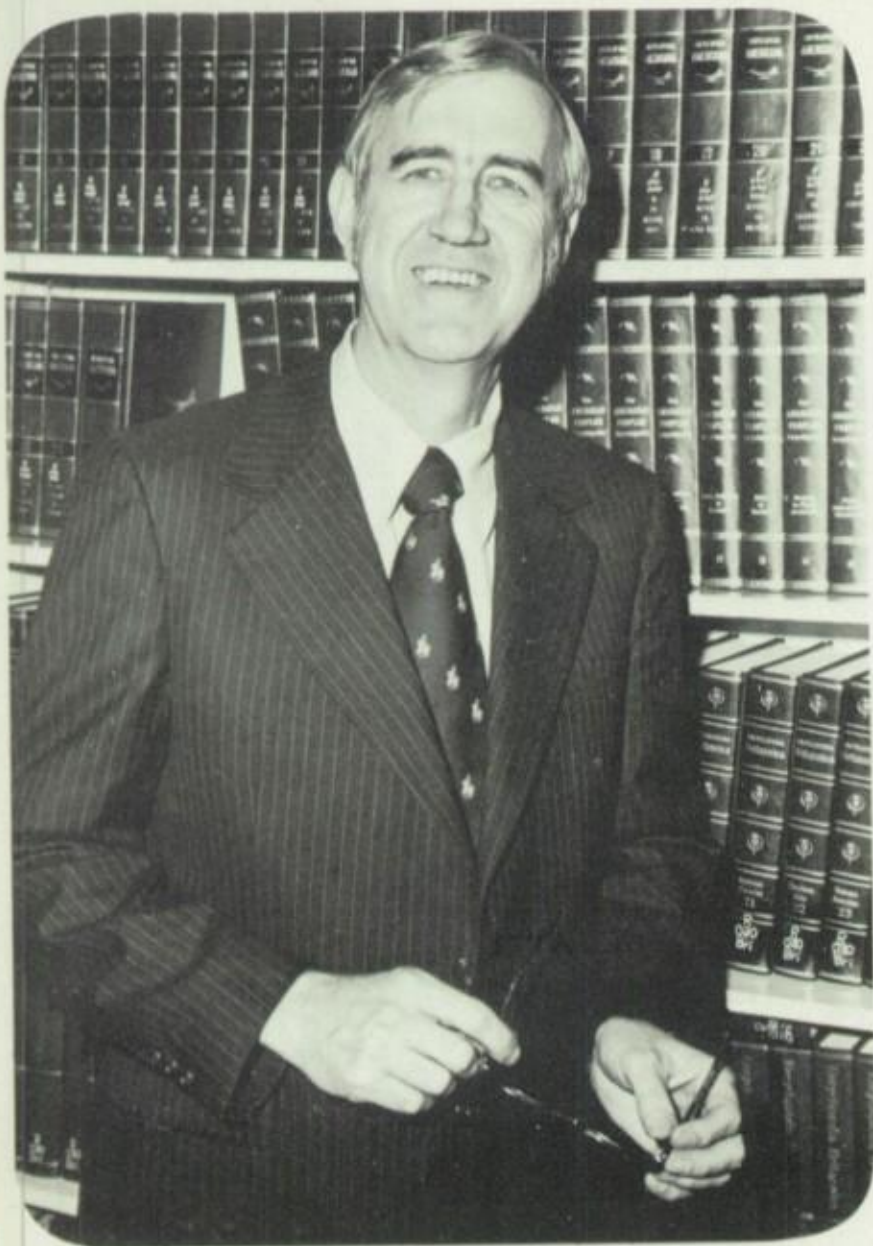

Cherished by our sons and daughters,
Sweet the memory's song.
In our heart our Alma Mater,
As we sing this song.

Forward ever, be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail.
Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
C.H.S., All Hail.

Administration

first-period announcements over the P.A. system-taking time to talk with students-conferences with parents-conferences with teachers-conferences with school officials-keeping the red tape under control-answering steady streams of phone calls-turning the wheels that keep the "machinery" of school life going-and heading up those sad morning teachers' meetings...

Faculty

faraway places and new ideas - brought right into the classroom - "read the next fifty pages for tomorrow" - conferences after class - a pop quiz on the only day you didn't read the assignment - teaching us something in spite of ourselves - lecturing, prodding, + probing - pushing back the boundaries of our minds ---

A PATRIOTIC WISH

I'd like to be the sort of man the flag could boast about;
I'd like to be the sort of man it cannot live without;
I'd like to be the type of man
That really is American:
The head — erect and the shoulders — square,
Clean-minded fellow, just and fair,
That all men picture when they see
The glorious banner of the free.

I'd like to be the sort of man the flag now typifies,
The kind of man we really want the flag to symbolize;
The loyal brother to a trust,
The big, unselfish soul and just,
The friend of every man oppressed,
The strong support of all that's best —
The sturdy chap the banner's meant,
Where'er it flies, to represent.

I'd like to be the sort of man the flag's supposed to mean,
The man that all in fancy see, wherever it is seen;
The chap that's ready for a fight
Whenever there's a wrong to right,
The friend in every time of need,
The doer of the daring deed,
The clean and generous handed man
That is a real American.
